Lodging:

The two most commonly used, moderately priced hotels for Capitol Legislative Day events are the Holiday Inn and the Vagabond Inn. Both of these motels are about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile from the Capitol and most people walk to the event. The Hyatt and the Sheraton are across the street from the Capitol but are somewhat pricey. There are other hotels and motels in the Capitol area and they can be accessed at the following web-site: <http://sacramento.hotelguide.net/hl1dt.htm>

Most of these places have an airport shuttle. Call for details. As of February 2012, a taxi ride from the airport to the Capitol was about $30. For the trip back to the airport, taxis are on standby at the Senator Hotel across the street from the Capitol on L Street between 11th and 12th.
